CHRISTUS PRIMUM

Barnham Graduate School and Seminary

Katy, Texas

has voluntarily achieved 21st Century CPCA APPLICANT Certification. The 21st Century CPCA Certification Commission with standards for educational institutions and programs has verified the institution's compliance. The CPCA certification process requires affirmation of compliance with the CPCA administrative and academic excellence standards patterned after our early historical United States educational institutions of higher learning. They are verified through peer review with Certification Facilitator Team visits.
